Matrimonial.

WILSON-JOHNSON.

The marriage of Mr. James Simms Wilson and Miss Lucy Mason Johnson was celebrated in a brilliant manner on Wednesday afternoon at the Second Presbyterian church, in this city. The pastor, Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford, officiated, using a beautiful and impressive ceremony.

The decorations in the church were most beautiful, comprising green palms, ferns and blooming chrysanthemums. The platform in the rear of the pulpit was embanked with a mass of green foliage, and pedestals on either side of the pulpit were laden with green plants and autumn leaves.

A more beautiful tableaux could not be presented than that witnessed when the entire bridal party were grouped around the altar.

The ushers were Messrs. James D. McClintock, G. Bacon, Frank P. Walker and John Spears. Mr. Ford Brent acted as best man and Mr. Isaac Dodd Best as groomsmen. The bride's maid was Miss Bettie Brent Johnson and the maid of honor, Miss Frances Johnson, sisters of the bride.

The queenly bride was radiant in a beautiful gown of crepe de chine over taffeta, with a veil caught in her hair. She carried a single chrysanthemum.

The maid of honor and the bride's maid were attired in poplin, trimmed in bows of cream satin ribbon and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Miss Johnson, the bride, is one of our most beautiful young ladies and is possessed of a most lovely disposition and has a host of friends who will wish her all happiness. She is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Johnson.

Mr. Wilson is the son of the late Dr. J. P. Wilson, and is one of the most prosperous young business men and is a gentleman who has many friends and acquaintances.

The numerous and handsome presents attest the esteem in which the bride and groom are held.

Friends of the contracting parties were entertained at the home of the bride's parents at an elegant six o'clock dinner on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left at 3:30 on Wednesday afternoon for trip to the East.

CURLE-WILSON.

A beautiful home wedding was that of Miss Allen Wilson, of this city to Mr. P. Curle, of Cynthiana, which occurred at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. J. Simms Wilson, on Pleasant street, on Wednesday at high noon. The parlors were tastefully ornamented with autumnal foliage and presented a most beautiful picture as the bride and groom pledged their vows to marital happiness.

The bride looked lovely in a gown of white Bedford cord. She is the daughter of the late Dr. J. P. Wilson of this county.

Mr. Curle is a prominent young business man of Cynthiana, who numbers his friends by the score.

Mrs. W. N. Jurey was the dame of honor. The ceremony was performed by Elder John S. Sweeney, of this city.

A wedding breakfast was given the next friends and relations on Wednesday morning which was served by a Lexington caterer. The bride, after witnessing the marriage of the bride's brother, Mr. J. Simms Wilson to Miss Lucy Johnson, in the afternoon, left on the 3:30 train for a trip to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, New York and Canada.

GORHAM-EGAN.

A wedding of local interest was solemnized at Sharon, Penn., Wednesday evening, Oct. 2d, the contracting parties being Thornton Gorham and Mrs. Rose Egan, both of that place. The groom is a son of Mrs. M. N. Thomas formerly of this city, and has a large acquaintance in Paris, his old home. He formerly resided at Louisville, Ky.

TAYLOR-BAUGHMAN.

Mr. Duncan Taylor, the popular salesman in the shoe store of Talbott Clay, and Miss Bessie Baughman, sister of Mrs. L. T. Purnell, were married in Lexington, yesterday afternoon, by the Rev. Mark Collis, of the Christian Church. Mr. Will Clark and Mrs. L. T. Purnell, of this city, attended the wedding.

Mr. S. S. Graves and Miss Katie Offutt, both of Georgetown, were quietly married in Lexington, on Wednesday. The wedding was a complete surprise to their home friends.

In the office of the County Clerk at Lexington, at 9 a. m. Wednesday, Squire Royalty officiated at the marriage of James Cox and Sarah Hill, a white couple from Paris.

Mr. Charles Singer and Miss Lindie Hawkins, of Scott county, were married in Lexington. The groom is a worthy young farmer, and formerly resided in Paris, being the son of Mr. Henry Singer.

The marriage of Frank Congleton Taylor of Carlisle, and Miss Mary Cecil, of Danville is announced for November sixth.

Mr. Ernest Smith, a popular young man of this city, and Miss Nellie Robbins, of Auburn Avenue, Cincinnati, will be married early in November.

Wants To Make Ballet Girls Out Of the Women.

The Commissioner of Bayonne, New York, Board of Health, has announced that he proposes legislation relative to women's attire.

"I propose," said he, to introduce at the next meeting of this Board an ordinance making it a misdemeanor for a woman to wear skirts or gowns that sweep the side walks. There is hardly any greater cause of contagion than these dresses, which gather up from the sidewalk germs of every description and carry them into homes to propagate and spread diseases."

Brother Officers.

Next Monday night Howard Gaud and company under the direction of W. M. Wilkison, will appear at the Grand. This company will present "Brother Officers" the play which ran all last season at the Empire Theatre. It was written by Capt. Leo Trevor, an officer of the British army who was with his regiment in Africa when the play was first produced in this country. It is said to be a decided departure from the class of English plays which have been offered to us in the past few years, in that it is simply told without any straining after epigrams, and permits one to become interested in what the characters do rather than in the smart thing they say. It depicts a phase of army life which is rather more the occasion for remark in England than in this country—that of an officer who has risen from the ranks. In this production the entire and original Empire Theatre of New York production, scenery, costumes, uniforms, furniture, etc., will be seen. Seats now on sale at the Box Office.
